Value of Belonging

Professional Networking
As an ISCA member, you are joining a multi-disciplinary association of professional school counselors, educators, administrators, students and others interested in the human services field.

Publication
ISCA publishes the Insight Newsletter. In addition, you will receive the ICA newsletter and the ICA Journal.
ISCA is committed to promoting members’ interests and concerns in the Illinois State Legislature and the school code, as well as in the parent organizations of ICA and ASCA.

School Counselor Licensure
ISCA members are active participants and leaders in working with ISBE on matters of professional school counselor licensure and authoring standards for counselor training.

Professional Recognition
ISCA recognizes outstanding contributions to the field of school counseling by awarding annual Elementary, Middle, and High School Counselor of the Year awards. Advocate and Legislator Awards are also given.

Advocacy
ISCA supports legislation that can protect your job.
ISCA advocates on behalf of school counselors with the Illinois State Board of Education and other governmental offices.

Professional Development
All workshops earn members CEs, CPDUs, and discounted registration fees.
ISCA sponsors a spring conference specifically for school counselors.
